OFFICE OF THE CHIEF REPRESENTATIVE
CENTRAL TIBETAN ADMINISTRATION (SOUTH ZONE) BENGALURU

Ref:- CRO/F21/2023-24/136

Date: 12th July 2023

To,
Shri.Madhu Bangarappa
The Honorable Minister
Department of Primary and Secondary Education
Vidhana Soudha, Government of Karnataka

Sub:- Special consideration upon the Issuance of NoC for the Affiliation of Sera Mey Thoesam and Gaden Shartse Thoesam Norling Monastic Schools

Hon'ble Minister Sh.Madhu Bangarappa ji,

Kindly accept our greetings and pranam from the office of Chief Representative, South Zone, Central Tibetan Administration, Bengaluru!

Monastic Schools of Gaden Shartse and Sera Mey that have been registered under Karnataka Societies Registration Act 1960 are continuously functional since 1975 and 1976 respectively in the district of Uttara Kannada and Mysuru. Two of these schools have started with 22 and 25 monk students which is now expanded with 460 and 434 monk students respectively after almost four decades.

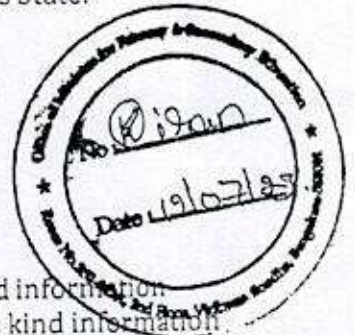

Today, in these schools not only the traditional education is being imparted but modern educational subjects are also being introduced. Notably, when these monastic schools were established from scratch in 1970s no one would have imagined that this would go long way in not only serving for the preservation of Ancient Nalanda Buddhist Values which is intertwined with the cultural fabric of Tibetan people but also become the cradle of learning of both Spirituality and Science. SEE (Social Emotional and Ethical) learning is what also one of the outcomes of these centers.

This has been possible with the farsighted vision of His Holiness the Dalai Lama and the support from Government of India as well as from State Government of Karnataka. Whereas today, formalization is must for any education entity, and given the special feature of its curriculum in pursuant of traditional Buddhist Monastic Studies and modern subjects I implore your Kind Authority's special consideration in granting NoC for the affiliation of (i) Sermey Thoesam School, Periyapatna Taluk, Mysuru District and (ii) Gaden Shartse Thoesam Norling School, Mundgod Taluk, Uttara Kanada District.

CRO office in Bengaluru avails itself of this opportunity to renew to your kindness the assurances of its highest consideration to Buddhistic Institutions in Your Prestigious State.

With our profound regards,

Jigme Tsultrim (Mr.)
Chief Representative
